

Transformative Classroom Management:

Positive Strategies to Engage all students and Promote a Psychology of Success

Table of contents

Part 1: Initial Stage: Assessing Where We Are and Raising Awareness

Chapter 1: Introduction

- Introduction
- The Natural Condition
- What is Transformative Classroom Management?
- Progression of the Book

Chapter 2: Classifying Approaches to Classroom Management and Examining Effective Practice

- Introducing the 4-Quadrant Management Style Matrix
- Vertical Axis – Effectiveness and Intentionality
- Moving Up the Continuum to a More Functional Approach
- Things We Need to Start Doing or Begin Doing More Effectively
- Transformational Ideas” Moving to the Next Level
- Things We Need to Stop Doing
- Thinking That Leads to Dysfunction
- The “It Works” Fallacy
- Horizontal Axis – Teacher Centered vs. Student Centered Orientation
- A Brief Description of each of the 4 Management Approaches
- Comparing the Advantages of 2-type vs 1-type Approaches
- Moving From 3 to 1-Type Orientation

Part 2: Exploring the Nature of Classroom Dynamics and Student Motivation

Chapter 3: Exploring the Depths of the “Classroom Reality?”

- Examining the Levels of the Socially Constructed Classroom Reality
- Examining the Implicit Level of the Classroom Reality
 - Teacher Language and Message Sub-Text
 - Social Frames
 - Examining How Power is Manifested in the Classroom
- The Unexamined Domain: Components of the Socially Constructed Classroom Reality that Typically Operate Below the Level of Conscious Awareness
 - We Teach Who We are
 - Examining Our World View
 - The Power of Unspoken Expectations
 - Implicit Rules
- Examining the dynamics of social learning
- Dynamic 1: Students as a Collective Learn Lessons Indirectly
- Dynamic 2: Students influence on other students
- Dynamic 3: Triangulating Interactions: One times One can equal 30.
- Dynamic 4: Reverse Effect – Students Learn What Conditions the Teacher
- Dynamic 5: Make Tomorrow Better As a Result of What You Do Today.

Chapter 4: Expectations – The Engine that Makes It All Go

- How Do Students' Expectations Develop over Time?
- Intentionally Creating Expectations
- Purposeful Action
- Positive Recognitions
- Clarifying Statements and Questions
- Debriefing after an Activity
- Personal Recognitions
- Warnings
- Negative Recognitions, Put downs and Threats

Chapter 5: Technical Management: Practical Strategies that Make a Class More Efficient

- What is Technical Management
- 100% or 50% rule
- Creating a Culture of Listening
- Attention Cues
- The 5 States of Attention
- Giving Directions Effectively
- Transitions, Routines and Procedures
- Redirecting Attention Effectively
- Beginning and Ending the Period (or Day)
- Advanced Ideas
- Comparing 2 and 1-style Technical Management

Chapter 6: Motivation – Why Do They Care?

- Extrinsic vs. Intrinsic Motivation
- Examining Common Motivational Strategies
- Extrinsic Motivational Techniques
- Healthy vs. Unhealthy Praise
- Intrinsic Motivational Techniques
- Exploring Students Basic Needs
- Examining Motivation as Movement

Chapter 7: Promoting a Success vs. a Failure Psychology

- Mastery-Orientation vs. Helpless Orientation
- Sense of Acceptance and Belonging
- Internal Locus of Control
- Indicators that you are Making Progress toward a Success Psychology
- At the Heart of a Transformative Approach is a Success Psychology

Part 3: Developing a Functional Democratic Classroom Society

Chapter 8: Creating Social (Contract) Bonds

- What is a Classroom Social Contract?
- Implementing your Social Contract
 - Step 1 – Decide on Basic Terms for Your Contract's Basic Rules/Tenants
 - Step 2 – Develop Your List of Rules/Principles/Boundaries/Tenants
 - Step 3 – Develop Consequences for Contract Violations
 - Step 4 – Make the Social Contract as Conspicuous as Possible
 - Step 5 – Practice, Teach and Test the Expectations of your Contract
 - Step 6 – Clarify Expectations (on-going)
 - Step 7 – Foster Community Relations (on-going)
 - Step 8 – Shift Ownership from You to the Collective

Chapter 9: Developing Logical Consequences (and Why to Avoid the Use of Punishments)

- What is a consequence?
- What is a punishment?
- What is wrong with the use of punishments?
- Why We Love to Give Punishments (and the Pain-Based Logic)
- Rewards: The Other side of the Reward/Punishment Coin
- Creating Effective Consequences within the Social Contract
- Promoting Buy-in and Ownership of Consequences
- Beware of Punishments that are Sold as Logical Consequences
- Table 10.3: Example Consequences for Common Problem Behaviors

Chapter 10: Implementing the Social Contract and Promoting Student Responsibility

- Always Keep the Big Picture in Sight
- Delivering Consequences
- Why is consistency so important?
- Examining privacy, proximity, group consequences and the power of the social context
- Delivering a Consequence to an Individual
- What Constitutes a Successful Implementation
- 2 Step-by-step Consequence Implementation Examples
- Dealing with Bargaining, Whining and Excuses
- What if a student says “No” to you and the contract?
- Making Sense of the Idea of Responsibility
 - What do Students Make Excuses?
 - Fostering Responsibility
 - Promoting Social Responsibility
- Comparing the Use of the Social Contract with 1-style and 2-style Teachers

Part 4: Good Teaching Practices lead to Good Management Outcomes

Chapter 11: The Pedagogy - Management Connection

- Exploring the Socio-Political Foundations of Instructional Inequity
- Five Key Areas Where Pedagogical Choices Affect Management Outcomes
 - Effectiveness of Lesson Preparation, Organization and Mechanics
 - Level of Engagement
 - Clarity of the Learning Targets
 - Degree to Which there is Incentive for Students to Invest in the Process
 - Degree to Which the Curriculum is Relevant and Meaningful
- Teaching and Managing Students with Different Abilities and Learning Styles
- Examining the Relationship between Assessment and Management
- Matching Pedagogical and Managerial Styles

Chapter 12: Managing the Cooperative Classroom Effectively

- What is Cooperative Learning and Why Should I Use It in My Class?
- Comparison of Ingredients in More Effective vs. Less Effective Cooperative Learning Activities
- Designing Your Cooperative Learning Activity
- Group Composition and Selection of Group Members
- Effectively Assessing the Cooperative Learning Activity
- Managing Your Cooperative Exercise
- What is the role of the teacher?
- Stages of 1-Style Teacher Involvement on the Path to Student Self-Directed Cooperative Learning
- Effectively Managing Behavioral Problems
- Transformative Ideas Related to Cooperative Learning

Part 5: When we need it: Remediation without Coercion

Chapter 13: A Win-Win Approach to Conflict Resolution and Power struggles

- Exploring The Most Common Sources of Conflict
- Win-Win Conflict resolution
- Dealing with Conflict within the Social Contract
- Successfully Negotiating a Power Struggle

Chapter 14: Changing the Negative Identity Pattern and Success with Challenging Students

- Taking an Intentional Mindset
- Changing the Negative Identity Pattern of a Student
- Examining the Various Manifestations of Negative Identity
- Working With Challenging Students – Bridging the Gap
- Use of Reality Therapy and Student Behavioral Contracts
- Working with Students with ADHD

Part 6: Adopting a Transformational Mindset

Chapter 15: Creating the 1-Style (Facilitator) Classroom and Creating a Classroom Community

- The 1-Style Classroom as the “Natural State”
- Defining Community
- Stages of Development for the Transformative Classroom
 - Stage 1 - Foundation
 - Management Goals - Clarity and Intention
 - Community Development Goals – Safety and Belonging
 - Stage 2 – Transition
 - Management Goals - Shifting Locus of Ownership and Cultivating Intrinsic Motivation
 - Community Development Goals - Creating Identity and Group Accomplishment
 - Stage 3 - Encouragement
 - Management Goals – Facilitating Vision and Self Direction
 - Community Development Goals - Fostering a Cause Beyond Self and a Sense of Tribe

Chapter 16: The Transformative Mindset and Making Our Thinking Our Ally

- Connection Between Our thinking and our Classroom Management Outcomes
- How to Have an Unsatisfying Day
- Exploring the Fundamental Factors in Our Thinking that Affect Our Experience
- Examining the Nature of Our Problems
- Sources of Negativity
- How Negativity in Thinking Manifests Itself into Classroom Management Dysfunction
- Changing Our Patterns of Thinking
- Adopting a “Yes” Mindset
- Beyond a Positive Attitude
- Promoting Energy Flow In Teaching
- Cultivating Our Sense of Purpose – and as a Result a Transformative Mindset

Part 7: Online Chapters

Chapter 17: Moving up from a 4-Style (dominator) approach to a 2-Style (Conductor) approach

- 4-Style teaching Approach case example
- Characterizing the 4-Style Management Approach
- Examining the Fundamentally Problematic Nature of the 4-Style Management Approach?
- But What If It Is the Only Thing That Works With “These Students?”
- Making the Shift Up the Continuum
- Losing the Pain-Based Logic and Lose the Struggle
- Making a Transition in Our Approach
- Making a Transition in our Practice

Chapter 18: Using Competition wisely

- Defining Competition
- Likely Consequences and Benefits of Competition
- Healthy vs. Unhealthy Competition
- Classroom Applications
- Competition in the Transformative Classroom

Chapter 19: A positive Alternative to a “Names on the board” System

- What is a Shame-Based Behavioral Assessment System?
- Comparison of Shame-Based and Behavioral Quality Assessment Systems
- Separating the Intended from the Actual Results of Shame-Based Behavioral Assessment Systems
- Introduction to the Alternative: the Ascending Levels Behavioral Assessment Rubrics
- Behavioral Assessment Systems in the 1-Style Classroom

Chapter 20: Outlining a Formal System for Assessing Quality of Process/Participation

- Examining the Nature and Benefits of Process, Participation or Behavioral Assessment
- Step-by-Step Process for Creating a System to Assess Process Outcomes
 - Choose a Focus Area
 - Select a Unit of Analysis
 - Determine the Purpose(s) for Adopting your System
 - Operationalize What You Mean by “High Quality _____.”
 - Create an Assessment Instrument/Rubric
 - Incorporate your Assessment System
- Process, Participation, and/or Behavioral Assessment In the 1-Style Classroom